Events in May at a Glance

Teachers are the real molders of the future citizen who are going to build up a society. If the formation process is not done properly the whole setup will go upset. In order to boost up our teachers there is a need of strengthening their skills and for this purpose our school has provided an In-service orientation session for them.

The session started from May 27. It was a five days orientation programme.

Orientation Programmes – Day 1

27

The first day of the session our principal mam, Mrs. Vasantha Madhavan energised us with positive boosters and gave a clear picture of the session.

Topic for the first class was 'Minimum Levels of Learning' It was presented by the Secondary Supervisor Mrs. Manjitha Jithin.

The class focused on that how a teacher can restructure the content or presentation in a simple, crispy manner with practical experiences.

On the same day two more topics were delt, 'Learning Outcomes' by the Supervisor of grade 6, 7, 8 Mrs. Deepthi U.

The topic focused on the methodology of teaching learning process.

Our Headmistress Mrs. Rema C gave us awareness regarding 'Teaching Aids'. It made to let us know about the different methods and teaching aids, how we can make our class rooms and teaching lively and interesting by using them.

Orientation Programmes – Day 2

28

Second day of our orientation session was groomed up by the Clinical Psychologist Mrs. Sangeetha.P.L. She discussed about the stages of different students with different age groups and their attitudes.

As being parents and teachers we have to play a great role in diverting the attention of children. By citing various situations and experiences. She shared her views, which were very useful for us.

Orientation Programmes – Day 3

29

To improve our IT skills, which is now a days an unavoidable part of teaching-learning process, we got a special class on 'Developing Skills through IT' delt by Mr. Ajith .

Orientation Programmes – Day 4

30

The most interesting part of this year's orientation session was an exhibition purely on 'teaching aids' prepared and well arranged by teachers.

New ideas were brought by teachers which can be presented in classroom to make the teaching more lively.

Orientation Programmes – Day 5

31

Really an enjoyable and very informative session we had with Mr.Abhishad Aziz, Motivational speaker. He dashed into the minds of teachers with his humorous way of presentation. He inculcated many important aspects related to a teacher, how should a teacher be and how we should handle our kids.
